

1. ❓ Should I open a link promising an urgent prize?
2. 🙋 Do not act under pressure. Ask a trusted adult for help and verify the offer through a known channel.
3. ⏳ Scammers have long used messages that imitate trusted people or organizations. Email and text messaging brought these deceptive requests onto our screens too.
4. 💡 A message says, “You won! Sign in now.” Do not open its link or send a password. Show the message to a trusted adult.
5. 🔍 A familiar logo does not prove a message is genuine. Urgency, unexpected prizes, and requests for private information are reasons to stop and check.
6. 🌎 Protecting your account also protects family and classmates. Check through an official app or a contact you already know.
7. 🎯 With an adult, invent a suspicious message on paper without real links. Mark two warning signs and practice saying, “I will check this first.”
