

Be a neighbor who helps.

The Good Samaritan • Luke 10:25–37

1

NOTICE

See the need.

2

STOP

Give your time.

3

HELP

Put mercy into action.

LOVE
IN ACTION

TRY IT TODAY

Choose one way to show mercy today.

SCHOOL ALIVE

Authentic HAMSTER Education®

Ignite Your Passion®

Made Alive in Christ

? Question: What does it mean to love our neighbor?

🗣️ Answer: Jesus teaches us to show mercy through action. In the parable of the Good Samaritan, a traveler cares for a wounded man whom others have passed by.

🕒 History: Luke 10:25-37 records Jesus answering a teacher of the law who asked, "Who is my neighbour?" The parable challenged him to consider what acting as a neighbor requires.

💡 Example: The Samaritan stops, tends the man's wounds, brings him to shelter, and provides for his care. His compassion costs him time, effort, and money.

🔍 Insight: Jesus turns the discussion toward becoming a neighbor to the person in need. Knowing the right answer matters, but His lesson calls us to put mercy into practice.

🌐 Connection: We can live this out in our homes, churches, and communities. We can notice someone who is lonely, help with a burden, or serve a person who cannot repay us. Faith in Christ should bear fruit in the way we love.

🎯 Challenge: Read Luke 10:25-37 together. Choose one need you can help meet today. Make a simple plan and carry it out. Afterward, explain which of the Samaritan's actions helped you decide how to show mercy.